

Pollard & Dickson Trust

Helps Friends & Attenders in need

Grants of up to £1,500 are available to Friends & Attenders for:

Hardship:

Help for those unable to meet daily living expenses.

Travelling in the Ministry:

Support for Friends to attend activities, courses or events that will have benefits for the wider Quaker community
(excludes Yearly Meeting but can help towards the cost of the Young Adult Leadership Programme at Woodbrooke).

Do you need financial support?

Contact Augene Nanning, Pollard & Dickson Trust Administrator.
Or ask your Meeting Overseer to apply on your behalf.

Simply, briefly explain:

- 1) why you need a grant at this time,
- 2) how much you are applying for and
- 3) how the money would be used.

You will also need:

- 4) a letter of support from your Meeting Overseer to confirm your link with the Quaker community and that your application represents a genuine need.

Augene Nanning, Pollard & Dickson Trust Administrator

E: pollardanddickson@gmail.com

A: Pollard & Dickson Trust
c/o Friends House 173 Euston Rd, London NW1 2BJ