

Inspiring nonviolence

Online course with Turning the Tide and Woodbrooke

24 February – 5 April 2020, £36

Dreaming of a more peaceful and just world? Friends are welcome to join us as we share ideas, thinking, practice and inspirational case studies about collective action through nonviolent means.

The course includes a diverse range of materials, discussion forums and webinars.

Our webinar speakers are:

- TTT East Africa colleagues
- Lyndsay Burtonshaw (activist, trainer, TTT & Stansted 15)
- Rachel Julian (activist and scholar, Peace Studies)
- David Gee (activist, researcher, author and poet)
- George Lakey (activist, scholar, writer, trainer)

Places are limited, to register for the course please visit:

www.woodbrooke.org.uk/inspiring-nonviolence

Turning the Tide is a programme within Quaker Peace and Social Witness (QPSW), a department of Britain Yearly Meeting (BYM).

WOODBROOKE
WWW.WOODBROOKE.ORG.UK

Inspiring nonviolence

Online course with Turning the Tide and Woodbrooke

24 February – 5 April 2020, £36

Dreaming of a more peaceful and just world? Friends are welcome to join us as we share ideas, thinking, practice and inspirational case studies about collective action through nonviolent means.

The course includes a diverse range of materials, discussion forums and webinars.

Our webinar speakers are:

- TTT East Africa colleagues
- Lyndsay Burtonshaw (activist, trainer, TTT & Stansted 15)
- Rachel Julian (activist and scholar, Peace Studies)
- David Gee (activist, researcher, author and poet)
- George Lakey (activist, scholar, writer, trainer)

Places are limited, to register for the course please visit:

www.woodbrooke.org.uk/inspiring-nonviolence

Turning the Tide is a programme within Quaker Peace and Social Witness (QPSW), a department of Britain Yearly Meeting (BYM).

WOODBROOKE
WWW.WOODBROOKE.ORG.UK

